ABSTRACT (11 Font Size, bold, all caps)

A short abstract may be provided which summarizes the content of your paper. Abstract should contain about 200 words and with 10 font size, Times New Roman, justified, single line spacing.

Keywords(10 Font Size, bold, centered): 5 words that are written with 10 font size and separated with commas.

1. INTRODUCTION (Title Times New Roman, 12 font size, bold)

Extended abstracts should be written according to underlying structure of the structured abstract. Subtitles of the extended abstract should be composed from the sections of abstract and keywords, introduction, methods, results, Conclusion and references. Extended abstract of the full paper shall be written with Times New Roman font, single line spacing and 11 font size. Extended abstracts can contain figures, tables, formulations or images.

2. METHODS

Equipment and method that have been used in the work must be stated clearly and subtitles should be used when necessary.

3. RESULTS

Results of the work and supporting figures, tables and images of the results should take part in the extended abstract.

3.1. Subtitle

First degree titles (3.) should be written left aligned (Times New Roman, 11 font size, bold). 2nd degree subtitles (3.1) should be written left aligned (Title Times New Roman, 10 font size, bold).

3.1.1. Subtitle

All of the tables, images and figures should be centered. Figures and images should be numbered together (Figure 1) and figure legend should be placed under the figure or image; as for the tables, they should also be numbered (Table 1) and the table header should be placed at the top of the chart. Table, image and figure headers should be written with upper case initial letters, bold and should be centered.

4. CONCLUSION

If all authors follow these guidelines as much as they find feasible, the Volume of Extended Abstracts will have a professional, semi-uniform appearance and can be produced without too much extra work. It will assist all participants to select the most interesting topics from the conference programme and serve as a valuable reference after the conference.
